

Excluded/Prohibited Goods

- a) Any Package that is not packed or labelled in compliance with, or does not fully comply with in part or in full, Regulations, associated packaging law for specific types of goods, DX Packaging Guidelines (available for download from the DM6 Lite customer area), or any package that contains any substance or matter prohibited by the Regulations or Law; or
- b) Any item which might or does cause any personal injury or physical damage to any person or property, or might otherwise be considered dangerous or hazardous;

Note: DX can only carry Chemical Dangerous Goods by road in limited quantity receptacles (LQ) limitations and 'Packaging Groups' 2 & 3. Only 1.4g and 1.4s. Class 1 explosives can be considered for carriage (on approval). Carriage of Dangerous Goods Regulations refers.

- c) Under normal circumstances Excluded Goods which will not be carried by DX, unless the carriage of such Excluded Goods is specifically agreed in writing, signed by a Director of DX Freight, and are not covered by our transit liability protection, these types of goods are carried entirely at the owner's risk. Excluded Goods include any of the following; Goods that are infective, infested, verminous, condemned unstable or includes hazardous material, and goods of the following types: antiques, securities, credit company sales vouchers, tickets or vouchers exchangeable for goods or services, unused units in franking machines, bullion, cash, bank notes or any other financial instruments capable of conversion into cash by anyone other than the payee; stamps, furs, jewellery, precious metals, precious stones, porcelain, ceramics, glass, china, Perspex, acrylics, polystyrene, polycarbonate, sealant, fibre glass, works of art, wines, spirits, tobacco or tobacco products, cigarettes, cigarette lighters, matches, compressed gases, aerosols, watches, living fauna and flora, perishable goods/goods liable to spoil (including food stuffs), controlled drugs (this prohibition does not extend to drugs carried under a Service Agreement with a pharmaceutical Customer who is licensed in respect of such drugs), oil-filled products or equipment, metal products where the packaging does not fully protect the item from damage or from damaging other freight, lewd, obscene, pornographic or obscene material, explosives, firearms, flammable items, any goods that require specialist storage conditions during carriage including temperature, humidity or other controlled environment, human remains (in any form), living creatures, organic peroxide, oxidising materials, poisons, second hand goods, liquids including but not limited to paint, varnishes, enamels and similar substances, oils and chemicals (refer to 'Note' above), radioactive material, any other item that might endanger human or animal life or otherwise taint or damage other goods carried by DX.

Such list may be amended from time to time at the sole discretion of DX.

DX may open, inspect, and/or refuse to carry any Consignment that it believes may comprise non-approved Excluded Goods.

DX shall not be responsible for any delay arising from any of the above.